Exelon Nuclear Partners With Tri-PAC to Bring “The Wiz” to Pottstown

Pottstown, PA (April 30, 2009) — This summer Pottstown area residents of all ages will be charmed by the wonderful family musical, The Wiz, thanks to an important partnership between the Tri-County Performing Arts Center and Exelon Nuclear’s Limerick Generating Station.

“Exelon has been a great partner in helping to bring the Tri-PAC to life,” according to Marta Kiesling, Executive Director of Village Productions, the nonprofit organization that owns and manages the Tri-PAC. “Their support of our programming, as well as their previous support in helping us purchase theatrical lighting equipment, is a very visible example of our shared commitment to the future of this community.”

“Limerick Generating Station is committed to being a partner in our community,” said Chris Mudrick site vice president. “The performing arts are an important part of this community and we are very pleased that we were able to sponsor this production.”

With a cast of over 40, The Wiz, will run Thursdays through Sundays from June 4th through the 28th at the Tri-County Performing Arts Center, 245 E High Street, Pottstown. This is a great show for the whole family, with acting, dancing, live music, and toe tapping songs! Ticket information may be found at www.tripac.org or by calling the box office at 610-970-1199.

Exelon Corporation is one of the nation's largest electric utilities. The company has one of the industry's largest portfolios of electricity generation capacity, with a nationwide reach and strong positions in the Midwest and Mid-Atlantic. Exelon distributes electricity to approximately 5.4 million customers in northern Illinois and southeastern Pennsylvania and natural gas to approximately 485,000 customers in the Philadelphia area. Exelon is headquartered in Chicago and trades on the NYSE under the ticker EXC.

Village Productions is a dynamic performing arts organization founded in 2001 by a dedicated team of performing artists, arts educators, and area residents who dreamed of creating new and highly accessible performing arts opportunities for the community. Village Productions seeks to strengthen community, inspire creative exploration, educate, and entertain, through the presentation of quality performing arts events and educational opportunities geared toward a diverse audience. You may contact Village Productions through their website at www.tripac.org, or by telephone at 610-970-1199.
