

Matthew F. Hilzinger

Position

Executive Vice President and Chief Integration Officer, Exelon Corporation

Profile

Hilzinger is responsible for the integration of Exelon and Constellation Energy, which merged in 2012. He oversees every aspect of the businesses' combination to form the nation's number one competitive energy provider.

Professional History

Hilzinger joined Exelon Corporation as Vice President and Corporate Controller in April 2002 and was promoted to Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer in January 2008. As the chief financial officer, Mr. Hilzinger was responsible for overseeing the execution all financial activities including financial reporting, planning, risk management and tax. Additionally, Hilzinger led the treasury function in developing and implementing financing plans and the investor relations group.

Hilzinger's career spans more than twenty years of financial and operating experience in a variety of international and domestic operations. Prior to joining Exelon, Mr. Hilzinger was with Kmart Corporation in Troy, Michigan where he held a number of financial positions including vice president, controller, assistant treasurer and divisional vice president, logistics finance and planning. Prior to Kmart, Hilzinger held various financial and operating positions at Handleman Company, also in Troy, Michigan. Mr. Hilzinger began his career at Arthur Andersen & Co. in Detroit.

Education

Hilzinger received his bachelor's of business administration degree from the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor, Michigan. He received his certification as a certified public accountant in 1987.