Exelon Statement On Pennsylvania State Legislature’s Concurrent Resolution On Fuel-Secure Generation Resources

CHICAGO (OCT. 20, 2017) — Exelon Corporation (NYSE: EXC) today issued the following statement regarding the concurrent resolution issued by the Pennsylvania General Assembly encouraging the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission to strongly consider the Department of Energy’s proposed Grid Resiliency Pricing Rule and implement policies ensuring that fuel-secure sources of electricity receive appropriate compensation for the positive attributes they bring to the grid:

“This resolution affirms the Commonwealth’s commitment to maintaining competitive markets while fairly valuing always-on, emissions-free nuclear power plants that support 16,000 jobs, $2 billion in economic impact and contribute to cleaner air for Pennsylvania families.”
